Frequently Asked Questions

What is a subscription?

A subscription is any ticket order placed at one time for 3 or more shows.

How can I save money on my ticket order?

We offer 4 different price sections to fit every budget. Also, when you order a subscription, you get our lowest prices! Subscribers save up to $10 per ticket!

What if I can't come on the dates I selected?

Subscribers may exchange tickets for a different date of the same show for free!

When will I get my tickets?

Tickets are held until January 19, when sales open up to the public. On that date, all subscriptions orders are printed and either mailed or held at Will Call, depending on what you select on your order form. You can expect mailed tickets to arrive by the 1st of February.

How are seats assigned?

The area where you sit is based on the price tier you select. You may also request specific seats, an aisle, or any other request. We do our best to give subscribers the same seats they usually have. Priority is given to people who have been subscribers the longest.

2015 Broadway Season

Into the Woods: May 8-17, 2015

One of the Stephen Sondheim's most popular musicals! Sondheim's intricate vocals make this offbeat take on several Brothers Grimm stories an enjoyable journey into the realm of fairytale fantasy. "Into the Woods" has been an audience favorite ever since its 1987 Broadway debut, and with the movie version coming out in December 2014, theatregoers will be anxious to revisit the musical in its original form!

Mary Poppins: June 12-28, 2015

Don't miss the theatrical event of the season! It's been 80 years since the "practically perfect" nanny first appeared in print and 50 years since the classic movie that made her an icon, and Mary Poppins remains as popular and beloved a character as ever. The Croswell will be pulling out all the stops to make our production an unforgettable experience. All your favorite songs will be there, from "A Spoonful of Sugar" to "Supercalifragilisticexpialidocious" ... Bert will walk the proscenium ... and, yes, Mary will fly!

Big Fish: July 17-26, 2015

This exciting new musical is both a wonderfully touching human story and a special effects extravaganza! It follows the life of a traveling salesman, Edward Bloom, who tells his son a series of tall tales about his fantastical adventures. The son, who never really understood his father or why he told such stories, is struggling to come to terms with the troubled relationship. With both rousing song-and-dance numbers and a story that anyone can relate to, this is a show that truly must be seen to be believed!

Memphis: August 14-23, 2015

Based on a true story, this new Tony Award-winning musical tells the story of Huey Calhoun, a white radio DJ in the segregated 1950s who falls in love with a talented black singer named Felicia Farrell. An energetic piece with a soundtrack reminiscent of the early days of rock 'n' roll, this is a musical that will leave you with your toes tapping and smile on your face. "Memphis" is a powerful and inspirational story that's sure to be a hit with anyone who loves the music of the '50s and '60s.

Handel's Messiah Rocks!: November 28 to December 6, 2015

This is a high-energy, rock 'n' roll version of one of the greatest pieces of music of all time. Handel's "Messiah" is updated for a modern audience, and the Croswell will be inviting school and church choirs from around the region to take part in the production.

Note: The Croswell will be using alternate performance spaces periodically in 2015-2016. This is our first "Croswell on the Road" production, and it will take place at the Madison Public Schools Performing Arts Center, 3498 Treat Highway, Adrian, MI 49221.
