

“Love, Loss and What I Wore” Community Read, Winter 2015

Thank you for taking part in the Community Read of “Love, Loss and What I Wore,” organized by the Croswell Opera House!

We’re very excited to be producing the stage adaptation of “Love, Loss and What I Wore” as part of our 2014-15 Special Event Season. Award-winning authors Nora and Delia Ephron adapted Ilene Beckerman’s bestseller, adding some of their own stories to Beckerman’s original work to create a critically acclaimed play that has been produced in more than eight countries across six continents.

If your book club or other group would like to attend our production of “Love, Loss and What I Wore” in March, please call us to ask about group rates! For groups of 10 or more, tickets will range from $15 per person for our Heritage section (normal price $25) to $10 per person in all other sections (normal price $15). To reserve space for your group, please call Ashley Brainerd at 517-263-6868 or email abrainerd@croswell.org.
